PRESS RELEASE

PEINEMANN ACQUIRES G. VAN HARTEN

3 December, 2019

Gert van Harten started out as an engineer/lifting technician with Mammoet, before starting his own company in June 1986 initially as Mobiel Transport. He changed to the current company name in 1989 and has expanded rapidly since then, moving into its current premises in Veenendaal in 2008.

Harten specialises in the relocation of machines and other objects for the steel, asphalt, concrete, foods, chemicals, medical and energy related industries. It has a reputation for mechanical and electro-technical expertise, allowing it to offer a real 'turnkey' for machine removal, transport and reinstallation on an international scale. Its fleet includes a number of specialist cranes including electric powered articulated spider cranes, mini crawlers and telehandlers.
